

New Jersey Collaborating Center for Nursing (NJCCN)

2017 Call for Proposals

The NJCCN is pleased to announce a call for proposals. One of NJCCN's mission statements is to: "Transform the healthcare system through research and innovative model programs." We are seeking proposals from DNP or PhD Nursing students currently working on an IRB approved dissertation or capstone project. Topics to be considered are focused on the following areas:

- Innovative APN Practice Models
- Outcomes on Residency Programs for new graduates; specialty area transitions; and post-acute
- Emerging roles for LPNs in a changing healthcare environment
- Workforce gaps for the future of healthcare across settings
- Impact of school nurses in the community

Funding will be up to $2500 per person

2 Grants will be awarded if criteria are met:

- 1 to a PhD Student
- 1 to a DNP Student

Requirements

- Current DNP or PhD Nursing students from an accredited NJ based doctoral program
- Findings must be available within 1 year of date of submission and be made available to the NJCCN for publication on our website.
- Proposal to be limited to 5 pages to include: purpose/aim of project, background and significance, objectives, timeline, methodology, and nursing implications. Abstract, bibliography, budget and IRB approval letter will not count toward the 5 page limit.
- Bio-sketch not to exceed 250 words.
- Publications resulting from the grant must acknowledge the NJCCN
- Recipients are encouraged and expected to submit findings/results to NJCCN for publication, and to present their findings at one of the Collaborating Center's meetings within 1 year of completion of the study/project.

- The grantee will provide the NJCCN with a reprint of any publication resulting from the work.
- The grantee will acknowledge the NJCCN as a funding source in any publication
- The NJCCN may wish to publicize portions of any or all reports, documents, and materials developed by the grantee and will do so only with the permission of the grantee.
- Grant recipients are responsible for submitting a final narrative report, minimum of 8-10 pages to include a plan for dissemination and next steps, and an executive summary of approximately 450 words. The final narrative and executive report are due 60 days after the end of the grant period.

Monies can be used for data analysis and or project implementation costs. Monies cannot be used to supplement salaries or student tuition.

All submissions will be blinded and reviewed by the NJCCN review committee. Awards will be at the sole discretion of the NJCCN.

Funding period: July 1, 2017- June 30, 2018.

Final project report is due July 31st, 2018.

Failure to complete the requirement within the allotted time period may result in full repayment of the award to the Center.

Submit proposal by 5 pm on May 30, 2017 to: Dr. Edna Cadmus @
(email:ednacadm@sn.rutgers.edu) phone: 973-353-2715

Awards will be announced June 23, 2017.
